Recommendations of the Press Council of* India regarding selection of Journalists for officially sponsored visit

1758 DR BAPU KALDATE: Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that several Ministries and Departments of Government have not been informed about the recommendations of the Press Council of India regarding selection of press persons for officially sponsored visits;

(b) if so, what are the reasons thereof,

(c) whether several Ministires and Departments have been regularly violating these recommendations by choosing journalists who have been writing pro-Government reports while covering these visits;

(d) whether Government have taken note of inclusion of such sponsored visits by non-media and non-accredited correspondents, and

(e) if so, whether Government propose to stop these practices and honour the recommendations of the Press Council of India in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS AND THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI H K.L. BHAGAT) . (a) to (c) The Press Council's guidelines for selection of journalists on officially sponsored visits were forwarded to concerned departments for such action as deemed appropriate Since the Press Council's guidelines are only advisory in nature and not binding on the Government, the question of violation does not arise

Such visits are conducted to help better projection of the governmental policies and programmes. These are not intended to be a measure of patronage to the Press. On the contrary, the Government is interested in ensuring that developmental activities in various fields are witnessed by as many news media representatives as possible in order to get wider coverage These conducted tours are, therefore, organised to help project the achievements of the Government and cannot be regarded as a manupulation of news. The manner of selection of journalists, rests with the Government as in the case of any sponsorship and non-inclusion of certain journalists cannot be regarded as a restrictive measure on the Press Notwithstanding this, in any case, the selection of journalists is made on a non-discriminatory basis and efforts are made to cover as wide a representation of the media as possible

(d) and (e) Newspapers sometimes nominate their journalists for these visits who are not accredited
